Kick off party for OSD is Thursday February 25, 2010 from 5-7 pm at fibs, please plan to attend if you can. For all OSD members, Kerri has sent out an email with questions so she can update the website accurately, please respond so this can be completed by the kick off.

Rose Day: Dick would like you to bring any card for roses sold to the next meeting. He'd like to have his count as accurate as possible. You can order up to one week before but keep him up to date on your count. March 27th is delivery, we would like as many volunteers as we can get, the boy scouts help, but let's get Lions members there too.

Dale reports we have a request from Brad Richardson. He is planning a fishing tournament the same weekend as OSD and would like some help from us promoting the event with ours. Sign ups will be at the bait shop. Dale would like the Lions to not only help promote the event, but to donate $250. Josh suggests we also give an OSD button to all participants. Dale also stated their entry fees are being donated to St Jude's. Motion by Jerry Wallace to donate $250 and to give a button to all participants, 2nd by Steve P. Motion carried.

Correspondence:

Community Foundation sent a letter stating we needed to fund the two scholarships at $500 and $600 to bring them to the $1000/each total. Motion by Jerry W and 2nd by Steve P to fund the scholarships. Motion carried.

Rotary Club has named The Rockton Lions Club their "Person of the Year" There is an awards ceremony March 7th at DiGiovanni's, and Dale Adams suggested that the President and Past President attend to receive the award.

Cathy Bellich Reported that Candy Day brought in $2067. We must donate 60% to LCIF ($1240.20) and $826.80 stays with the club.

Cathy Bellich also has sight and sound raffle tickets for the Lions of Illinois Foundation. The cost is $10 for a book of 12 or $1 each. Please take some books and sell them, it is an easy fundraiser for the club. They are due back to Cathy by May 1, and Frank will also be selling them in our Ro/Ro booth.

Frank sent out a form to sign up to work our booth at Ro/Ro, it is March 13/14 - please see him to sign up.

Motion by Kerri to adjourn, 2nd by Steve P. Meeting adjourned 6:50 pm.
